	safety and security (including in relation to sanitary measures) may access certain personal data for the purposes of providing their services. The transfer of personal data to the relevant public authorities, based on legal provisions and obligations, for the purpose of safety, security and sanitary measures and law enforcement related to the Match(es), is reserved.
Onward transfer	UEFA Parties will not, in principle, transfer your personal data to countries outside of the European Economic Area (EEA), with the exception of data processing within Switzerland by the UEFA Parties or any service providers identified above. The EU Commission has decided that Switzerland ensures an adequate level of data protection (Article 45 of the GDPR). In the event of a transfer of personal data to the recipients identified above located in any other country which does not ensure an adequate level of protection within the meaning of applicable data protection laws, in particular, according to Article 44 et seq. of the GDPR, UEFA Parties (i) have put in place European Commission approved standard contractual clauses to protect your personal data and/or (ii) will rely on your consent (where permitted by law). To learn more about those safeguards, please contact us at: privacy@uefa.ch.
Storage	All personal data provided to UEFA shall be stored in UEFA's online ticketing and hospitality platform, which is managed by SecuTix SA in Switzerland (see above).
Your rights	You may access, update or delete your personal data and/or send your requests regarding your rights regulated under all Applicable Laws, by contacting us at: hospitality@uefa.ch. In addition, you have certain rights under Chapter III of the GDPR, depending on the legal basis and the purpose of the processing, in particular the right of access (Article 15 of the GDPR) and the rights to rectification (Article 16 of the GDPR), erasure (Article 17 of the GDPR), restriction of processing (Article 18 of the GDPR), and data portability (Article 20 of the GDPR), as well as the right to object (Article 21 of the GDPR). You can assert these rights towards both UEFA Parties. The data privacy team can be contacted at: privacy@uefa.ch. You have also the right to lodge a complaint with their local Data Protection Supervisory Authority and have the ability to seek to enforce their rights through a judicial remedy. The list of relevant local Data Protection Supervisory Authorities in the European Union is available here. In relation to the 2026 UEFA Europa League Final, Applicable Laws include Article 11 of the DP Law.
Retention period	The personal data is only collected and processed by UEFA for no longer than is necessary for the purposes described above, unless the use of such personal data is further required for ongoing administrative or judicial proceedings relating to the relevant Match or, where necessary, for preventing or detecting unlawful actions or due to statutory retention obligations.
